

Criminal Justice Contracted Services

Catherine Cornwall, Budget Lead

(206) 684-8725

Department Overview

Criminal Justice Contracted Services (CJCS) provides funding for both public defense and jail services for individuals arrested, prosecuted, and/or convicted of misdemeanor crimes in Seattle. The City Budget Office manages the contracts for these services.

The City contracts with several jurisdictions, including King County, to provide jail services. The City had contracted with three non-profit legal agencies to provide public defense services. As of July 2013, the employees of these non-profit agencies became King County employees, and the three non-profit agencies assigned their contracts to King County which will provide public defense services to defendants charged with misdemeanor crimes in Seattle Municipal Court.

2014 Adopted Budget - Expenditure by Category

Budget Overview

The 2014 Adopted Budget for Criminal Justice Contracted Services has no changes from the 2014 Endorsed Budget. Spending is driven by the number of people arrested and booked into jail and by the number of cases filed by the City Attorney. Jail bookings, jail days and case filings are expected to remain at the same levels assumed in the 2014 Endorsed Budget.

City Council Changes to the Proposed Budget

The Council made no changes to the 2014 Proposed Budget.
